The introductory-level camps are a great option for juniors with no or limited golf experience. These intro camps will teach participants the fundamentals of putting, chipping and full swing, as well as ensure they learn golf etiquette and common rules.

The advanced-level camps are a better fit for juniors that have a strong understanding of the golf swing and are looking for more in-depth instruction focusing on the finer dynamics of the swing and game, including course management.

The Tennessee Golf Foundation is a 501c3 non-profit organization whose mission is to promote golf and its life enhancing values with an emphasis on teaching youth and the disadvantaged. Its junior golf initiatives in Knoxville include The Scott Stallings Kids Play Free Initiative, the Sneds Tour, the Tennessee Middle School Golf Association and TGF Junior Golf programs at Beverly Park and Concord Park Par 3 Golf Courses.
